A Father's Presence

Written by: Joe Battaglia

In Deuteronomy 11:18-19, Moses commanded fathers: "Lay up these words of mine in your heart and in your soul, and you shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. You shall teach them to your children, talking of them when you are sitting in your house, and when you are walking by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise."

It's not enough to bring children into the world and care for their physical and emotional needs. There is a spiritual need all children have that must be addressed, and God asks us as fathers to meet that need.

All fathers are teachers. Some are absent. Some are reluctant. But children will learn something from us. A father teaches through his actions, his love and his communication about character and truth in everyday experiences. The question is what do we want them to learn? A dad's presence and words are as important to teens today as they were in earlier times.

Every experience is an opportunity to teach. Being there is half the battle as a father — being someone who exhibits strength, not measured by how much you can lift, but by how much you can share. Our children are watching and listening to see how we will act and what we'll say. May they hear others say about us, "I wish my father cared as much."

YouVersion Live Events

If you haven't done so already, download the YouVersion Bible app to your smart device. This is a free app.

Open the app. Select "more" at the bottom of the page. Then select "events." From there you will be able to search "Science Hill Christian Church" and select our live event.

This live event, each Sunday morning, will allow you to follow our sermon in an outline structure. Scripture references and notes will be provided. In addition to simply following along, you can add and save your own notes as you listen to the message that day.

YouVersion Live Event is a great tool and asset. We hope you consider using it if you're not already.

New SNL series

For the remainder of the year on Sunday nights, we will be examining Old Testament biblical characters in our series, Prophets. Priests. Kings.

We believe it's imperative that we learn the Word of God and become familiar with the stories of God's people, but not for knowledge itself. We believe each of these stories present an opportunity. Whether it's the story of a prophet, a priest or a king, we have the opportunity to learn spiritual truths and better understand God's commands and expectations for us, his chosen people.

UNITED Live!

On Wednesday, June 5th, 6:30-8pm, our student ministry will be hosting UNITED Live! This is a night where our new middle school students will transition into N1 for the first time. Parents and families are invited to attend as well, to experience and see firsthand what our student ministry and N1 is all about!

A note from Andy:

There will be food, games, prizes and more! Invite your friends, invite your parents. We want you to come and see what we're all about.
